2009 ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING ITEM SUBMISSION FORM

For motions to change the F.W.S. By-Laws
Requested submission date: March 31, 2009

All motions to change the F.W.S. By-Laws at the Annual Business Meeting (ABM) must be submitted on this form or a form containing all of this information. In order for submitted motions to be forwarded to the appropriate Conference and Board committees for research and discussion prior to the ABM, they need to be submitted by March 31, 2009. This will provide for maximum group conscience.

The F.W.S. By-Laws are a legal document establishing the framework of the Fellowship—defining how groups, Intergroups, the Conference, and the Board of Trustees interact with each other. Changing the By-Laws may have long term implications to the Fellowship. We ask that you consider these implications prior to submitting motions for By-Laws changes.

Since the By-Laws are a legal document, motion wording may require changes not necessary in other ABM motions. The Conference Charter Committee (CCC) and its subcommittee, the Business Meeting Items Summary (BMIS) Review Subcommittee, is available to help explore these matters. We encourage thoughtful consideration, requests for assistance, and submission of these motions before the March 31 deadline.

The submission and review process is as follows: 1) item is received by March 31 and forwarded to the review committee; 2) editor of the BMIS compiles all agenda items and forwards copies by April 10 to Conference Committees for feedback; 3) Conference Committees submit reports to the CCC by May 15; 4) the BMIS is distributed on May 30 to Conference members and groups world-wide for group level discussion; 5) items are addressed by the Conference at the ABM, July 14-17, 2009.
